9. What experiences in this course positively influenced your academic and/or professional development? Experiences to consider include (but are not limited to) assignments, discussions, internship placements, projects, labs, explorations, virtual activities, lectures, etc.

The reading of the texts helped me learn a great deal about religion, but also myself

From the Sun Flower reading I could get the perspective from a victim and the struggle for forgiveness. Forgiveness is preached everywhere but is really hard to do.

My overall understanding of the concept of religion is expanded, and my detailed understanding of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam have increased.

There were a variety of different assignments that weren't your classic "fill this out, do this." They were interesting assignments that kept my interest

Great professor, I really appreciate his hard work especially the fact that he allows us to share religion in class which gives people a greater and more clear perspective about religion, also me being Muslim he allows me to share my beliefs which was really fun experience for me and the class, I really liked this class and the professor

10. What, if anything, could the instructor do to improve this course?

I believe that the lectures could be a bit more entertaining but content wise he is good

The instructor could do more activities for tent of Abraham like he did for sunflower.

N/A

Make the class more interactive, it was solely lecture based so it would be easy to get lost and confused.

Having things due the night after a class and not during the class time so that way though who might of forgot or missed a class would have a chance to do it on time
